

Privacy Policy

Protecting the privacy and safeguarding the personal and financial information of our users and website visitors is one of our highest priorities. The following Privacy Statement explains how Quantfury collects and protects your personal information.

By using Quantfury mobile application or by using the Quantfury website, you give your consent to the collection and use of personal information by Quantfury as explained in this Privacy Statement.

Collection of personal information

We collect your personal information directly from you and indirectly as a result of your relationship with us. Quantfury may use the information collected from you in several ways, including but not limited to verifying your identity and contact information, establishing your Quantfury account, maintaining your account activity and contacting you with account information. This information also helps us improve our services to you and inform you about additional products and services that may be of interest to you.

You directly provide us with the majority of information we collect, such as your contact details, including name, mailing address, cell phone number, e-mail address, or wallet information.

You provide us with this information via the Quantfury mobile application and the Quantfury website.

The information we collect indirectly from you includes your Internet protocol (IP) address, browser type, operating system, Internet service provider (ISP), time stamps, and transaction history.

Should you stop using Quantfury app, Quantfury will retain your information, but only use it to comply with regulatory requirements.

Sharing Personal Information with Quantfury's Non-affiliated third parties

Quantfury does not sell, license, lease or otherwise disclose your personal information to any non-affiliated third party for any reason, except as described below.

To help us improve our services to you, we may engage another business to help us carry out certain internal functions, such as account processing, fulfillment, client service, client satisfaction surveys or other data collection activities relevant to our business. We may also provide a non-affiliated third party with client information from our database, including your name, address, phone number, and/or e-mail address, to help us analyze and identify client needs, notify clients of product and service offerings or conduct general marketing and market research for us.

The security of your personal information

We employ physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards to guard your non-public personal information. When you start using Quantfury mobile app, you choose your user name and a password. Only a limited number of Quantfury employees who have a need to know this information will have access to it. Remember that you are ultimately responsible for maintaining the secrecy of your account user name and password. We strongly recommend that you do not disclose this information to anyone.

Our mobile application uses technology to encrypt information transmitted by or to you. We conduct regular internal audits of our business practices and procedures, examining confidentiality standards and information access in order to protect your personal information.

Changes to this Privacy Statement

In the event Quantfury materially changes this Privacy Statement, the revised Privacy Statement will promptly be posted to our websites. By opening an account with us, you are deemed to agree to accept posting of a revised Privacy Statement electronically on our website as actual notice to you.
